Feeding the Hundreds

There are still a few more pans that are in the Commons Area. We especially need help with the sweet potato casserole pans. You can pick those up Sunday morning or anytime during the week. Help will be needed Christmas Day for making the plates and delivering them. Usually, we have a great number to help with this. Due to the COVID virus, we may not have as many to help this year. Your assistance in 2020 is especially important. Remember, masks are required.

Shepherds Report

This Sunday night at 5 p.m. the Shepherds will speak to the church during our livestream service. We will talk about 2020, 2021, missions, livestreaming, and finances. We will express our appreciation for your support and encouragement through this most difficult year. Make plans to be watching.

Principal on Loan

This Sunday is our annual opportunity to help pay down our building loan. We are working hard to get this indebtedness paid off. Sunday afternoon at 5 p.m. we will be sharing with you where we are on the loan and what we are doing to pay it down faster. We ask this contribution to be above and beyond your regular contribution. Just place it in the white contribution envelope and mark it for the building fund. Thanks for your generosity!

Phillip

Barrier's Blog

Last week I wasn't planning on preaching, at the last minute we had an emergency at our congregation and I was needed. I needed to preach two sermons with about 36 hours to come up with and prep a lesson/PowerPoint presentation. Luckily, the Lord's Word is always ready and the task was completed with no problems. This reminded me of 2 Timothy 4 when the Bible teaches us to be ready in season and out of season. Paul is instructing Timothy and reminds him why we always have to be ready to teach, preach and defend God's Word. 2 Timothy 4:2-5 says...Preach the word! Be ready in season [and] out of season. Convince, rebuke, exhort, with all longsuffering and teaching. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine, but according to their own desires, [because] they have itching ears, they will heap up for themselves teachers; and they will turn [their] ears away from the truth, and be turned aside to fables. But you be watchful in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry. Not everyone knows or understands the Word of God. If someone needs info or understanding His people should be ready and willing to give it and to give it correctly. We won't always have time to prepare a response or an explanation. However if we study the Word, live the Word and are serious about our relationship with God we will be ready in and out of season. After all, isn't it always "in season" for the Christian? Are you ready to convince, rebuke and exhort?
In Him, Todd

Here is the plan for hYg:

- 1) I encourage you to watch the livestreams on Wed/Sun.
- 2) We will have a weekly Bible study on Sunday on our page, on my YouTube page and a link on Instagram/Remind. Pick up a study sheet/guide to go with the lesson in the Fort or see Todd. The lesson on YouTube/Facebook will be somewhat of a review of the study guide.
- 3) We will have some Zoom meetings to stay connected.

Preschool & Sonlight Station Virtual Bible Classes are on our Sonlight Station YouTube channel.

Pre-recorded lessons are sent out on Sunday afternoons so your child can watch when convenient. Lesson Packets are available for pick up (Separate lesson packets for 1) 18 months—Pre/K and 2)K—5th grade) Sunday mornings in the Commons Area.

Let your light so shine
