We have a lot of exciting things happening over the next two weeks. There have been many questions about the Old Auditorium renovation and the plans for our summer. I've got a few details and dates for the next couple of weeks listed below.

Sunday Night, May 26th - Guest Speaker Christian Torres will be with us to discuss the mission work in El Salvador. This is a new mission work we are helping to start.

Wednesday Night, May 29th - Our final meeting in the Old Auditorium before renovations begin. Phillip Hines will be teaching.

Friday, May 31st - Demo Day 1! We will begin demolition of the Old Auditorium at 5:30pm. We will need much help and we hope you can join us.

Saturday, June 1st - Demo Day 2! Starting at 8:30am Old Auditorium demolition continues. If you have reserved a pew this is pick up day and you'll need to arrange your own transportation. Again, we will need help/volunteers for continued demolition.

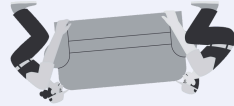

Sunday Night, June 2nd - Bedtime Stories, our summer series, will be kicking off at 5:00pm in the main auditorium. John McMath will be our speaker bringing us a lesson from the Garden of Eden. All of our Sunday nights will be in the main auditorium for the renovation process.

Wednesday Night, June 5th - Round Table Discussions Kick-Off! At 6:30pm we will meet in the Fellowship Hall for our round table discussions. Immediately following, we will have an Ice Cream Supper! So be planning what tasty homemade ice cream you want to bring.

-Justin
