Family Day

Next Saturday, August 10th at 11:00 am in the Fellowship Hall is our annual Family Day! We'll share a meal together then have some fun. Included in the fun this year: carnival games for all ages, an inflatable bouncy house, and a dunk tank. I know many would love the opportunity to dunk the ministers, and you just might get your wish. For the adults, bring some board or card games. Last year there was a rowdy bunch of dominoes players. Come one, come all!

Full Bible Read Through

This is something I am very much looking forward to on August 21st-24th. During these dates our church will collectively read from Genesis to Revelation. It will be designed in a way where reading can be done by individuals or groups. No one person will be able to read or hear the entirety of scripture in that weekend, but as a collective whole we will accomplish this task. We'll have more instruction and logistics when this date gets a little closer, but I hope this is something you too can get excited about.

Small Auditorium Reopening

Mark your calendars for Sunday night, September 8th as we will be having our first service in the renovated small auditorium. Much hard work has been going into the renovation, and it still has a ways to go. I know many of you, like me, are really looking forward to this space opening back up.

Bedtime Stories Summer Series

Our Summer Series continues this week, but with a slight twist. Instead of a guest speaker, you will have to settle for a lesson from me. Our topic will be, "The Wisdom of Solomon" and I am looking forward to our lesson together that evening. Our remaining speakers are:

August 11th - Brandon Presnell - Jonah
August 18th - Chris Present - The Fiery Furnace
August 25th - Steve Summings - Daniel and Lions' Den

THANK YOU!

There are just no words to express how thankful we are for you all during this difficult time. Thank you for the prayers, thoughts, meals, the wonderful meal after mamma's service and the beautiful singing. We appreciate the love and kindness.
