Trunk Or Treat Recap

We hosted over 1000 guests and all aspects of the event were so smooth. We had around 100 volunteers from church who decorated their trunks, prepped/handed out food, or helped with set up, take down, and logistics. An event on this scale could not happen without a church family that cares about putting their best foot forward to serve their community. While many trunks were incredible, Rowdy and Marla Holt took home the prestigious "Best Trunk Award" with their Glow For Jesus themed trunk. This makes back-to-back wins for the Holt family, and I believe a real dynasty is in the making! You can check out many pictures from the event on our Facebook group.

Shepherds' Retreat

Hartselle Church of Christ's elders are currently on their annual Shepherds' Retreat. This is an important time where they reflect on the past while preparing for the future. This retreat is always beneficial to moving our congregation in the right direction. Please pray for Phillip, Lee, Darrell, and Alan and that God will bless them with wisdom as they make decisions for 2025 and beyond.

Election Musings

In his interview with Tucker Carlson 2 weeks ago, American Journalist Mark Halperin was asked about the response of democrats in America if Trump was to win another term. His response was, "I say this not flippantly. I think it will be the cause of the greatest mental health crisis in the history of the country." Well Donald Trump has been elected, and based off what I've seen, Mark's comments might not be too off. How Christians respond in this time, I believe, is pivotal for the church and the case for Christ in this country. I think I'll have more to write in the coming weeks, but for now, Colossians 4:5-6 comes to mind.

NEWS, NOTES, & EVENTS

Lads to Leaders registration forms are available in the Common's Area. If you/your child are interested in participating this year, please submit forms to Jared or Mark by this Sunday, November 10th. They can also answer any questions you may have.

South Alabama Children's Gift Bags will be available Wednesday Night in The Commons. New this year: Donated preschool or age appropriate school supplies are already inside each bag. Please choose a bag, complete the bag with Christmas gift items (a suggested list is included) and return your bag by Sunday, December 1. See Peggy Owens, Linda Strickland, or contact Telula Thornton if you have any questions.

Thank you for the generous donation. We were honestly blown away at this very thoughtful gesture. We appreciate you so much for thinking & praying for us. It has been rough traveling everyday & often being on the road at mealtime, so your gift has been well used. We are loving being at Hartselle Church of Christ with you all & we hope to introduce our newest family member soon! We love you! The O'Rear family

As we do each year, we are taking donations for Childhaven for their Thanksgiving Appeal. If you would like to donate money, please write your checks to Hartselle Church of Christ and place it in an envelope marked Childhaven and give it to Jan or one of the Elders.

There is a sign-up list in the Commons for all ladies who are willing to work in the Nursery on Sunday mornings during December and January.

Continue to pray for our Shepherds as they are on their annual retreat to pray and plan for our congregation in 2025. Please pray for wisdom and their safe return.

Please look on the back of this Newsletter for our Upcoming Events for November and December. Please mark your calendars and plan to join us.
